Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 87, 102-107, 122, 124, 126 and 128 drawn to comparing image points of a web with respect to a reference position, determining the deviation and providing a member for affecting a fan-out effect of the web directed to class 101, subclass 484.

Group 2, claim(s) 88-89, 92-98, 101, 109-112 and 132, drawn to comparing the lateral position of the image to the nominal position, determining the distortion and correcting the lateral registration in response to the distortion direct to class 101, subclass 484.

Group 3, claim(s) 90-91, 99-100, 108 and 113-121, 123, 125, 127, 129-131 and 133, drawn to providing a device for affecting fan out of a web directed to class 101, subclass 480.

2. The inventions listed as Groups 1 and 2 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group 1 is drawn towards detecting deviation from image points on a printed image. Group 1 does not teach determining a distortion of the image area and actuating a lateral registration control means to respond to said distortion. Group 2 does not include a member for affecting the fan out effect of the printed web and is not drawn to detecting over at least a quarter of the web width.

3. The inventions listed as Groups 1 and 3 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group 1 does not teach a device for providing lateral registration control and affecting the lateral registration of the web. Group 3 does not teach the use of image points in determining a deviation of the web from a reference position. Group 3 further does not teach actuating a member for affecting the fan-out when the deviation passes a critical threshold.

4. The inventions listed as Groups 2 and 3 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group 2 does not teach scanning at least over a quarter of the web width. Group 2 does not teach a device for affecting the fan-out of the web. Group 2 further does not teach the provision of sensors. Group 3 does not teach the use of a nominal position in determining the distortion of the web and using said distortion to determine a lateral registration correction.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their lack of unity in lacking the same or corresponding special technical features, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. No telephone call was made to the applicant's attorney because examiner has reason to believe that the applicant's attorney will not elect by phone.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
